Introduction

Oral Health Services Assessment

The Oral Health Services Assessment is an evaluation of health center protocols related to oral health service provision, scope of practice, regulation, coding, billing, and reimbursement. This assessment will focus on fluoride varnish, caries risk assessments, anticipatory guidance and patient/parent education, and referrals, and will include examination of EHR utilization and patient education and/or outreach materials.

Instructions

Please fill out the survey to the best of your ability.

Definitions

- Non-dental clinical provider: physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, midwife
- Non-dental clinical team members: nurse, medical assistant
- Non-dental support service provider: community health educator, promotora, health navigator, community health worker, home visitor, and/or WIC staff
- Dental clinical provider: dentist, dental hygienist, dental therapist, dental assistant
- Dental support service provider: community dental health coordinator
- Preventive oral health services: activities that aim to improve and maintain good oral health and function by reducing the onset and/or development of oral diseases or deformities and the occurrence of orofacial injuries. Examples of preventive oral health services include oral hygiene instruction, fluoride treatment, and dental sealants. This is not an exhaustive list of preventive services.
- Oral Health Screening/Risk Assessment: Oral health screening is a visual inspection of the mouth; it is NOT an oral exam. Risk assessment is defined as evaluating a person's risk of oral health disease based on their social environmental and behavioral influences. Both risk assessment and oral health screening help to dictate treatment needs and urgency for dental referral.
- Tele-dentistry: the remote provision of dental care, advice, or treatment through the medium of information technology rather than direct personal contact.

Target populations

Children from birth to age 40 months and pregnant women. A patient in the target population is a child that receives regular primary care.
